GIPF IN SEARCH OF FORMER MEMBERS WITH UNCLAIMED BENEFITS

The Government Institutions Pension Fund (GIPF) appeals to all former members who have left employment due to retirement, resignation, ill-health, disability, or retrenchment but who have not claimed or received their pension benefits from GIPF, to contact the HR Offices of their former employers in order to complete a claim form with the relevant supporting documents for submission to the Fund as soon as possible. Family members or beneficiaries of GIPF deceased members who fall in the above categories are also requested to contact the HR offices where the members were employed.

A list of the former members has been availed on the Fund's website on www.gipf.com.na, and has been disseminated to government and participating institutions' Human Resources personnel. The list will also be placed in print media, on the Fund's social media platforms, as well as on the national broadcasting radio stations.

"GIPF implores the above-mentioned former members to claim their benefits as provided for in the Rules of the Fund. If these benefits are not claimed by the end of May 2020, they will be paid over to the Guardian Fund held at the Master of the High Court" concluded Anna Hambuda, Manager: Operations.

For more details on this and other Fund related matters, former members may call any of the GIPF offices country wide on; Head Office 0612051000, B1 City 061446200, Ondangwa 065241381, Swakopmund 064461735, Oshakati 065220587, Katima Mulilo 066254589, Otjivarongo 067307078, Gobabis 062564098, Rundu 066256820, Outapi 065202001, Keetmanshoop 063226021 or Eenhana 065263846.
